Section 'B'

(Short Answer Type Questions)

2. (A) Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions : 10

The people who are to be happy fix their attention on the conveniences of things. The pleasant part of the conversation, the well prepared dishes—the goodness of wine, the fine weather. They enjoy all the cheerful things. Those who are to be unhappy think and speak only of the contrary things. Therefore, they are continually discontented themselves. By their remarks, they sour the pleasure of society, offend many people and make themselves disagreeable every where. If this turn of mind are found in nature, such unhappy persons would be the more to be pitied. The disposition to criticise and be disgusted is perhaps taken up originally by limitation. It grows into a habit unknown to its possessor.

(C) Write a precis of the following passage : 10

We speak of blessing in disguise, poverty is an evil. Adversity is also, an evil. But they are great teachers. Poverty teaches us the worth of money. It therefore, makes us work harder. Thus it is a blessing in a sense. There is something good about it. It is an eye opener. It introduces us to the world. Wealth shows us one side of the world. Poverty shows, us the other. Adversity trains and strengthens the mind. Sweet are the uses of adversity. Adversity makes us watchful. Prosperity takes us off the guard. Adversity makes us humble and modest, prosperity makes us proud, Adversity draws us to God. Prosperity makes us forget him. Money is the root of all evil. Adversity teaches us the value of money. God is said to love thy poor, otherwise He would not have made so many of them. Many great men become great because of the stimulus of poverty and adversity. Adversity is an evil but has a soul of goodness.
