

Geological Field training of M.Sc. II Sem. students In GSI under Bhuvismvad project (10th-15th feb 2020)

Context: Geology is a field science so field studies and trainings are essential.
Objective: Field work helps students to identify rocks, and structures.
Activity: Practical training on field and samples collected from various locations.
Evidences: Photographs. Attached
Impact Analysis: a) Learning outcome- Students were given hands on training how to measure attitude of various geological features
b) Beneficiary: All Students of M.Sc. IInd Sem.

